

Summer Reading List

11th Grade: American Literature

Course Overview: The ultimate goals for this class are to expose students to American culture, heritage, and history through study of literature and to continue advancement towards more mature, refined writing skills. Therefore, students in 11th grade English are to read the following American authors: non-honors students are to read The Glass Menagerie by Tennessee Williams, students in honors are to read The Glass Menagerie by Tennessee Williams and Invisible Man by Ralph Ellison.